Michael Zeigler of Lutheran Hour Ministries— Feb. 10. Come for lunch and listen to his presentation. What are we doing when we “study” the Bible? We say we’re “fed” by the Bible. Ezekiel ate the scroll, after all. Yet, what if we’re still missing something? This presentation will explore the metaphor of “rehearsal” to approach the Bible, following the title of a recent book by Anna Carter Florence titled, Rehearsing Scripture, which may help us avoid being Bible foodies who hear the Word, but stop short of performing, like the man who looks in a mirror then “goes away and forgets what he looks like” (James 1:24). RSVP with Suzanne Olmos at solmos@cclphoenix.org.

BPM Prayer Vigil & Campus Prayer Walk – BPM is a blessing not only to our church, but especially to the attendees. 1 Corinthians 12:31b—13:13 (NIV)

And yet I will show you the most excellent way.

¹If I speak in the tongues¹ of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ²If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name.

⁵Great is our Lord and mighty in power; his understanding has no limit. Psalm 147:4-5 (NIV)

⁴Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

²⁴Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?” declares the LORD. “Do not I fill heaven and earth?” declares the LORD. Jeremiah 23:24 (NIV)

⁸Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹²For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

²⁰Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, Ephesians 3:20 (NIV)

¹³And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

⁴For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything. Hebrews 3:4 (NIV)
