On January 27, CC-L welcomed 18 new members at our 101 and 201 classes. Over the next few weeks we will be sharing some "tidbits" about them. *Pamela Roselle grew up in Phoenix, but was born in Flagstaff. Her son, Brighton, attends CLS. Her interests are helping others, working with kids, family, art, and she is a Packers fan. *Rebecca Ruiz and her daughter love serving here at CC-L. She is on the leadership team for CR and will be helping at BPM. *Caroline Sowers is originally from Columbus, Ohio and came to Phoenix by way of Spokane Valley, WA. She is a Melaleuca Marketing Executive and an independent Avon Representative. *Edward Babitze likes working with his hands, video equipment and computers. He is originally from San Jose, CA and moved here in 2002 with his wife, Jacqueline. *Sharyn Buddenhagen grew up here at CC-L. She is a "Busch child" returning "home". She taught in the Tempe Elementary School district for 40 years, then taught at Gethsemane Lutheran, Tempe.

God Knows How to Fish

Luke 5:1-11 (NIV)

¹One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, the people were crowding around him and listening to the word of God. ²He saw at the water's edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. ³He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch." ⁵Simon answered, "Master, we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets." ⁶When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. ⁷So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. ⁸When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" ⁹For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, ¹⁰and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people." ¹¹So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.

God Chooses the Unusual

Luke 5:27-31 (NIV)

²⁷After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at his tax booth. "Follow me," Jesus said to him, ²⁸and Levi got up, left everything and followed him. ²⁹Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them. ³⁰But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to his disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" ³¹Jesus answered them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

It Takes all Kinds

Luke 6:12-16 (NIV)

¹²One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God. ¹³When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles: ¹⁴Simon (whom he named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, ¹⁵Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot, ¹⁶Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Best Practices for Ministry Conference 2019!

Volunteer by going online to www.cclphoenix.org and clicking on the BPM "Click here to Volunteer NOW" page.

BPM Volunteer Training Event—TODAY

Meet in the Canyon Room at 12:15pm for a free lunch and volunteer training, including a cleaning party!

There is still time to volunteer for the conference!
Join us today to find out just how you can help!

Why should you volunteer for BPM? YOU are making an impact on people's lives and what you do is important!

"Thank you, Pastor Schrank and your amazing congregation for helping make my life better. My life is happier as I work, my life is happier as I live, because of the goodness and generosity I came away with."

"I have to say that your volunteer "staff" was second to none. Every corner I turned, there were many willing adults and kids helping, serving & smiling. How do you do it?"

"Thank you for reminding those who are in the edge of burnout or whose ministries don't appear to be "successful" that there is always hope and what matters is that God works through all of us - to do the amazing and the impossible because that is what He specializes in."

"Your entire staff, from greeters, lunch people, to students, showered us with smiles, and encouraged interaction - and just celebrating God at work in our lives."

"I've been to lots of church conferences over the years, but never one with such love and hospitality oozing out of every corner, every person, every smile, and every kind deed extended."
