¹ Peter 3:15 says to "...always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect."

In today's society of differing worldviews, tolerance, and skepticism, is the book of Genesis and the account of creation still relevant? Many of the big questions that people are asking concern God and his creation. Let's walk together through Genesis and see the wonderful clues that God has left for us in His Holy Word. This three-week study of Genesis 1-9 is designed to help all of us find the answers we need when people ask. May 5, 12, and 19 from 9:40-10:20am in Room 2, across the field. Contact Chuck Tasler with questions ctasler@cclphoenix.org.

Tote Bags: Support our National Youth Gathering team by purchasing a CCL tote bag. Bags are $20 and will be available for pick-up starting Mother's Day. This would be the perfect gift for a mom or grandmother especially for that special day! Order

Christ Church Lutheran May Be Getting a Vicar! There is a possibility that we may have a vicar for a year. With that, we are looking for possible rental or housing situations. If you have any suggestions, or useable homes or apartments, please contact

It's that time again! Summer Camp will be starting and we need your help! Looking to get rid of paint, stickers, supplies, prizes? Pastor Jeff will take it all! Anything that can be used for arts and crafts is what we are looking for! Please

We Stand in Hope

Matthew 28:1-10 (NIV)

¹After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

²There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it.³ His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.⁴ The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

⁵The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.⁶ He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay.⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

⁸So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples.

⁹Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him.¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

Christ Lutheran School

Happy Easter from everyone at Christ Lutheran School. May the promise of the Resurrection give you hope and peace! There will be no school or before or aftercare services tomorrow, Mon., April 22.

Chapel Offering for April and May: Students have already started bringing in offering to bless our Celebrate Recovery kids. Student offerings will be used to supply CR children with summer fun bags which include games and fun items, as well as a Bible or devotional book.

You don't want to miss it! We have a great parent opportunity on April 29th from 6-7:30pm in the gym. Rosalind Wiseman is an internationally recognized educator and author. She will be speaking on "Helping Young People Navigate Friendships, School and Social Media." Topics will include: How do you get your child to talk to you? How do you reach out to parents when you need to tell them something about their child? How can social media affect your child's self-esteem and friendships? How can adults help young people navigate the pressure to keep up? Parents of children of any age will appreciate what Rosalind has to share and you are encouraged to attend that evening. Please feel free to invite your friends as this is an event for the whole community. There will not be childcare provided as we anticipate a large crowd!

Paperwork Roundup will be held on Wed, April 24 from 7am until 6pm in the chapel for all current Preschool through 7th grade families. We ask that one parent come to update all paperwork needed for the start of the coming school year. This is a fun chance to complete "parent homework", enjoying some time with your CLS friends!

Note from the Business Office: Check Your Contribution Statements: Please make sure to check your contribution statement. Adjustments and changes will only be allowed until April 30, 2019. If you have any questions, please contact Kim Walton kw Walton@cclphoenix.org. Thank you!

CLSTO Scholarship Applications are due for the coming school year on May 3. Applications are available on the website or in the office. These awards are based on financial need demonstrated by tax returns and other information provided by families. Completed applications may be submitted to the school office.

As part of the 8th grade Theology class, each student creates a cross that expresses the cruel, painful suffering as well as the generous love that Christ endured and gave us. These crosses are on display in the Arizona Room today from 6:30am—12:30pm. We welcome you to take some time,

The 4th graders recently read the book Maddi's Fridge by Lois Brandt. This book helps readers develop an understanding of the increasing amount of hunger within our own communities! 1 out of 5 children are at risk of having an empty fridge, like Maddi in the story. The 4th graders want to do something about it! ChildsPlay Youth Theater will be performing this book as a play on Fri., April 26 during the school day from 12:40-1:40pm. Kindergarten through 4th grade students will attend the play. YOU are invited to join us too! Please RSVP with Megan Gotshall at mgotshall@cclphoenix.org, as seating is limited. The 4th graders will be collecting canned food as a suggested entrance "fee." These donations will go to Feed Our Babies' local Arcadia food pantry to help fight hunger and homelessness in our own
